MASTER

A FEAST FOR THE FOUNDING MASTER

On Friday, November 24th, 2006 the College will be hosting a very special evening to honour the ineffable memory of ROBERTSON DAVIES
whose departure from his earthly seat just over a decade ago is being marked by a three-day symposium on his writing and this expanded annual celebration.

We have hired the Great Hall of Hart House to accommodate as many Junior and Senior Fellows, Alumni, Quadranglers and College friends as possible. A vice regal visitor is invited and expected to come to heighten the occasion, the noted actor Mr. Colm Feore will do a reading of one of the Founding Master's best ghost stories, the Canadian Children's Opera Chorus will be performing a world-premiere excerpt from a new children's opera by Dean Burry to a text by Davies, and the College Choir will conclude the evening.

Drinks in the Hart House Great Hall foyer 6:30 to 7 p.m.

Three-course dinner with wine in the Great Hall 7 p.m.

Entertainment between 8:30 and 9:30 p.m.

Post-prandials for the brave back at Massey College after 9:30 p.m.

Junior Fellows are guests of the College, as are participating members of the Robertson Davies Symposium, but must let us know if they intend to come. All other members of the College are being asked to pay $50 per person to defray some costs of the evening. This can be charged to your accounts or paid by cheque. Please indicate if you would prefer the vegetarian option. All are welcome to invite guests (at $50 a place) as space permits.
